

There's a Light Beth Neilson Chapman

There's a light, there's a light in the darkness
And the black of the night cannot harm us
We can trust not to fear
For our comfort is near
There's a light, there's a light in the darkness

It will rain, it will rain in the desert
In the grass of the plain there's a treasure
Like the thirst of the seed we await, we believe
It will rain, it will rain in the desert

We will fly, we will fly, we will let go
To this world we will die, but our hearts know
We'll see more on that side when the door opens wide
[We will fly, we will fly (repeat)] we will all go
